Superintendent's Report: Mr. Mulvaney discussed that there is a new Fire Marshal, and a life safety plan for the school will be completed as soon as the Fire Marshal is ready and organized to do so. Mr. Mulvaney and the board also discussed the possibility of a real estate purchase. The board agreed that we needed to seek advice from our lawyer and that the real estate needed to be appraised before moving any further.

Principal's Report: Mr. Loschen went over enrollment numbers in the school. Total enrollment is 134 students consisting of 65 students from Armstrong and 69 from Potomac. He mentioned that last year's enrollment was 135. He also mentioned that MAP testing was to occur the next week and Progress Reports were to be sent out this week. A Teachers Institute day is scheduled for October 5th. The County Volleyball Tournament will be hosted by ATHS on October 13-15.
